1. Y Gan Gymraeg - The Welsh Song

Singer: Bryn Fon

O'r chwe degau daeth y gri i ysgwyd ein gwlad fach ni.

Canu protest ddaeth i'r bri, cofnod o'ch dicter chi.

Ond toedd y gwrthrych ddim yn dallt ddim un gair o'r gan.

[Cytgan:]

O pam! Pam dwi'n mynnu hogi crafangau'r ddraig?

*O pam! Pam trafferthu canu'r gan Gymraeg?
Yn Gymraeg, ie, Cymraeg...*

Wedi malu llwyth o seins, cyngerdd "Cymdeithas yr Iaith", gwalltiau gwirion a gitars, canu am winllan a chraith.
Ond beth oedd pwrrpas pregethu wrth y rhai sy'n dalld?

[Cytgan:]

*O pam! Pam dwi'n mynnu hogi
crafangau'r ddraig?*

*O pam! Pam trafferthu canu'r gan Gymraeg?
Yn Gymraeg, ie, Cymraeg...*

Ond sut ma cyfleo anfodlonrwydd cenedl?
Sut mae deud ych deud pan does neb yn dalld?

(Canu'r gan Gymraeg...)

This bit is in English so you can understand, that we're a different nation, we are a different band!

This bit is in English so you can understand,
that we're a different nation, we are a different
band!

Understand, different band, take my hand...

From the sixties came the cry to shake our little country.

Singing protest became the trend, a record of your anger.

But the object didn't understand any word of the song.

[Chorus:]

Oh why! Why do I insist on sharpening the dragon's talons?

*Oh why! Why bother singing the Welsh song?
In Welsh, yeah, Welsh...*

Having destroyed loads of signs,
"Cymdeithas yr Iaith" concert, silly hairs and guitars, singing about vineyards and scars.

But what was the point in preaching to those who understand?

[Chorus:]

Oh why! Why do I insist on sharpening the dragon's talons?

*Oh why! Why bother singing the Welsh song?
In Welsh, yeah, Welsh...*

But how do you convey the discontent of a nation?
How can you say your say when nobody understands?

(Singing the Welsh song...)

This bit is in English so you can understand, that we're a different nation, we are a different
band.

This bit is in English so you can understand,
that we're a different nation, we are a different
band.

Understand, different band, take my hand...

2. Abacus

Singer: Bryn Fon

Ti'n gadael i mi gred u bo gyn ti ddim diddordeb
Wedyn cynnig cysur, y cysur mwyaf glandag
Fethishi ymateb, mae'n rhaid mod i yn ddwl Ond roeddet ti 'di chwarae' fo Abacus fy meddwl.

Ti'n gadael i mi greu y broblem o ddau un
Wedyn cynnig ateb, dy ateb di dy hun Fedrai'm cael fy mhen rownd
y sym anhygoel hon
Ti chwalu'r Abacus, Abacus
fy nghalon

[CYTGAN:]
*Mae un ag un yn ddau a chdi a fo 'di rheiny Dwi'n cyfri dim i chdi - yr un odd sydd ddim yn rhannu
Ond cerddais lawr y bryn yn rhannu fy mreuddwydion
Yn tynnu gwallt fy mhen
Tynnu gwallt fy mhen
A chyfri fy mendithion.*

Ti'n gadael i mi feddwl fod rhywbeth yn y gwynt
Ond gwn yn mer fy esgyrn - ddaw'r ateb ddim ynghynt
Ti'n cynnig rhif dy ffon fel mathemateg pur
A'r cwbl dwi angen ydi'r ateb i fy nghur.

Ti'n gadael i mi fynd efo cusan ar fy moch
'Di'r gawn ni rywbryd eto jysd ddim yn canu cloch
Y batri aeth yn fflat yn y gyfrifiannell hon
Ti di chwalu'r Abacus, Abacus
fy nghalon.

[CYTGAN]

*[Ailadroddwch bedair gwaith]
Un dau tri
Mam yn dal y pry
Pry wedi marw
Mam yn crio'n arw*

[CYTGAN] x 2

You allow me to believe that you're not interested
Then offer me solace, such unfeeling solace
I did not respond - I must be a fool
But you had messed around with the abacus in my mind.

You allow me to believe this two-one problem
Then you offer an answer, your own answer
I can't get my mind around this complex equation
You've demolished the Abacus, the Abacus
in my heart

[CHORUS:]
*One and one is two and that is you and him
I mean nothing to you - that odd number that doesn't divide
I walked down the hill, sharing my dreams
Pulling the hair from my head
Pulling the hair from my head
And counting my blessings.*

You allow me to think that something's in the wind
But I know in my bones that the answer won't come soon
You offer your phone number like pure mathematics
And the only thing I need is the answer to my ache.

You allow me to leave with a kiss on my cheek
The "well meet again soon" just doesn't ring a bell
The battery went dead in this calculator
You've demolished the Abacus, the Abacus
in my heart.

[CHORUS]

*[Repeat four times]
One two three
Mum catches the fly
When the fly is dead
Mum cries bitterly*

[CHORUS] x 2

3. Dim Mynadd - Can't be Bothered

Singer: Bryn Fon

Oni 'di meddwl achub y byd
ond sgin i'm mynadd.
Dod a'r cenhedloedd oll ynghyd
ond sgin i'm mynadd.
Banio rhyfel, poen a traïs, sortio llanast yr yank a'r sais, byth rhy hwyr i godi pais
ond sgin i'm mynadd!

Oni am drwsio'r 'ozone layer'
ond sgin i'm mynadd.
Stopio pawb rhag llygru'r ddaear
ond sgin i'm mynadd.
Gneud fel yn yr oesoedd gynt,
troi peiriannau hefo gwynt, gyrru llygredd ar ei hynt
ond sgin i'm mynadd!

[Cytgan:]
*Na, na, na, na, na, na
sgin i'm mynadd!
Na, na, na, na, na, na
sgin i'm mynadd!*

Oni am frwydro dros yr iaith
ond sgin i'm mynadd.
Mynd a'r band ar daith
ond sgin i'm mynadd.
Canu 'protests songs' yn groch, cael fy arrestio gan y moch, hyn i gyd cyn chwech o' gloch
ond sgin i'm mynadd!

[Cytgan]
Dwi am godi o fy ngwely, mae 'na raglen ar y teli sydd yn trafod problem 'apathy'.

O dyna broblem fawr ein hoes ni, (wel hynny ag S4C)
ond fel ddwedodd Ems bach lawer gwaith
o mlaen i,
'Sgin i'm math o fynadd!'

Oni am sgwennu can i chdi
ond sgin i'm mynadd.
Deud bo fi'n dy garu di
ond sgin i'm mynadd.
Odla' a threigliada'
i ddatgan fy nheimlada'.
Fedrai'm ffeindio'r geiriau, sgin i'm mynadd!

[Cytgan]

I thought about saving the world
but I can't be bothered.
Bring the all nations together
but I can't be bothered.
Ban war, pain and violence sort out the mess of the yank and the Englishman, never too late to lift an underskirt
but I can't be bothered!

I was going to fix the ozone layer
but I can't be bothered.
Stop everyone from polluting the earth
but I can't be bothered.
Do things like the ages before,
turn machinery with wind,
send pollution on its way
but I can't be bothered!

[Chorus:]
*No, no, no, no, no, no
I can't be bothered!
No, no, no, no, no, no
I can't be bothered!*

I was going to battle over the language
but I can't be bothered.
Take the band on tour
but I can't be bothered.
Sing protest songs at the top of my voice, and be arrested by the pigs, and all of this before six
but I can't be bothered!

[Chorus]
I'm going to get out of my bed, there's a programme on the telly that discusses the problem of apathy.

Oh that's the great problem of our time, (well that and S4C)
but like old Ems said many times before me,
'I just can't be bothered!'

I was going to write a song for you
but I can't be bothered.
Tell you that I love you
but I can't be bothered.
Rhymes and mutations to declare my feelings.
I can't find the words,
I can't be bothered!

[Chorus]

4. Un Funud Fach - One Small Minute

Singer: Bryn Fon

Weithiau dwi'n deffro'n flin fel tincer ag edrych ar fy hun.

A'i hwn yw y dyn oni isho bod?
Yn taflu llwch i lygaid cariad cyn rhedeg ffwrdd mewn ofn.
A'i hyn yw y ffordd i fyw fy oes?

Hyn dwi'n ofyn -

[Cytgan:]

Un funud fach, gad mi drio ffeindio'n nhraed, mi dreia i esbonio pam all Carrag ddim rhoi gwaed (ddim rhoi gwaed).

*Un funud fach, gad mi drio ffeindio'n nhraed,
mi dreia i esbonio pam alla Carrag ddim
rhoi gwaed.*

Serch y boen, serch yr ymladd di-ben-draw, peth rhyfadd oedd, oni'n meddwl dy fot ti'n deall.

[Cytgan:]

*Un funud fach, gad mi drio ffeindio'n nhraed,
mi dreia i esbonio cyn fod petha'n mynd yn waeth (mynd yn waeth).*

*Un funud fach, gad mi drio ffeindio'n nhraed,
mi dreia i esbonio pam alla Carrag ddim
rhoi gwaed.*

[Cytgan:]

Un funud fach, gad mi drio ffeindio'n nhraed, mi dreia i esbonio pam fod petha'n mynd yn waeth (mynd yn waeth).

*Un funud fach, gad mi drio ffeindio'n nhraed,
mi dreia i esbonio pam alla Carrag ddim
rhoi gwaed.*

Sometimes I wake up as angry as a tinker and take a look at myself.

Is this the man that I wanted to be?
Throwing dust into the eyes of love before running away in fear.

Is this the way to live my life?

This is what I'm asking --

[Chorus:]

*One small minute, let me try and find my feet,
I'll try to explain why a stone can't give blood (can't give blood).*

*One small minute, let me try and find my feet,
I'll try to explain why a stone can't give blood.*

Despite the pain, despite the never-ending fighting, the strange thing is, I thought that you understood.

[Chorus:]

*One small minute, let me try and find my feet,
I'll try to explain before things get worse (get worse).*

*One small minute, let me try and find my feet,
I'll try to explain why a stone can't give blood.*

[Chorus:]

*One small minute, let me try and find my feet,
I'll try to explain why things are getting worse (getting worse).*

*One small minute, let me try and find my feet,
I'll try to explain why a stone can't
give blood*

5. Ceidwad y Goleudy - Lighthouse Keeper

Singer: Bryn Fon

Wrth gwrs fe gei di gerdded ar hyd fy llwybr, Cei fynd lle y mynni ar fy nhir.
Wrth gwrs fe gei di gasglu mlodau harddaf,
Dim ond i ti addo dweud y gwir.
Wrth gwrs fe gei di gerdded i fy mwthyn,
Cei gynna' y tan a hwylio'r te.
Wrth gwrs fe gei di groeso ar fy aelwyd,
Dim ond i ti esbonio be' 'di be.

[Cytgan:]

Dyma gan a achubwyd o donnau
y moroedd
Fe'i gwelwyd yno'n boddi gan
geidwad y goleudy
Fe'i clywodd yn gweiddi 'A wnei di fachub i?'
Can a oedd yn llithro rhwng muriau llaith
anhofio
Ceidwad y goleudy ydwysi.

[Cytgan:]

Dyma gan a achubwyd o donnau
y moroedd
Fe'i gwelwyd yno'n boddi gan
geidwad y goleudy
Fe'i clywodd yn gweiddi 'A wnei di fachub i?'
Can a oedd yn llithro rhwng muriau llaith
anhofio
Ceidwad y goleudy ydwysi.

Wrth gwrs fe gei di weddi wrth fy allor
Rhoddaf glustiau fy Nuw yn eiddo i ti Wrth gwrs cei fedyddio dy blant
yn nwr fy ffynon
Dim ond i ti ddysgu ngharu i

[Cytgan:]

Dyma gan a achubwyd o donnau
y moroedd
Fe'i gwelwyd yno'n boddi gan
geidwad y goleudy
Fe'i clywodd yn gweiddi 'A wnei di fachub i?'
Can a oedd yn llithro rhwng muriau llaith
anhofio
Ceidwad y goleudy ydwysi.
Ceidwad y goleudy ydwysi.

Of course you may walk upon my path
You may go where you wish on my land.
Of course you may gather my most beautiful flowers,
Only if you promise to tell the truth.
Of course you may walk to my cottage,
You may light the fire and sail the sea
Of course you'll be welcome by the hearth,
Only if you explain everything.

[Chorus:]

Here's a song that was rescued from the waves
of the sea
She was seen there drowning, by the lighthouse keeper
He heard her crying 'Will you rescue me?'
A song that was slipping between the wet walls of forgetting
I am the lighthouse keeper...

[Chorus:]

Here's a song that was rescued from the waves
of the sea
She was seen there drowning, by the
lighthouse keeper
He heard her crying 'Will you rescue me?'
A song that was slipping between the wet walls of forgetting
I am the lighthouse keeper...

Of course you may pray by my altar
I will give the ears of my God to you
Of course you may christen your children in the waters of my spring
Only if you learn to love me.

[Chorus:]

Here's a song that was rescued from the waves
of the sea
She was seen there drowning, by the
lighthouse keeper
He heard her crying 'Will you rescue me?'
A song that was slipping between the wet walls of forgetting
I am the lighthouse keeper...
I am the lighthouse keeper...

6. Y Bardd o Montreal - The Bard from Montreal

Singer: Bryn Fon

Mae o yma o'm mlaen i rwan
Yn barddoni lle bu bocsio
A'r ddinas yn dathlu milflwydd
A'r iddew yn canu y croeso
"I remember you well, at the Chelsea hotel"
Mae o'n deud ei ddweud heb wenu
Lady Midnight Man a'r Hippie
O na, dwi wedi anghofio Gwna ditha r'un fath y lembo
"Oh, I remember you well, at the Chelsea hotel"

[CYTGAN:]
*Cofio ei eiriau di-droi nol
Janis a'r bardd o Montreal
Cofio ei eiriau di-droi nol
Janis a'r bardd o Montreal
I remember you well, at the Chelsea Hotel...*

Mae o yma o'm mlaen i rwan
Yn canu lle bu cwffio
Dulyn yn dathlu hefo fo
Yr iddew a gafodd y croeso
"I remember you well, at the Chelsea hotel"

[CYTGAN:]
*Cofio ei eiriau di-droi nol
Janis a'r bardd o Montreal
Cofio ei eiriau di-droi nol
Janis a'r bardd o Montreal
I remember you well, at the Chelsea Hotel...*

*Cofio ei eiriau di-droi nol
Janis a'r bardd o Montreal
Cofio ei eiriau di-droi nol
Janis a'r bardd o Montreal
I remember you well, at the Chelsea Hotel...*
Yes I remember you well, at the Chelsea Hotel
Oh, at the Chelsea Hotel
Oh, at the Chelsea Hotel

He's here in front of me now
Composing poetry where once was boxing
And the city celebrating a millennium
And the Jew sings the welcome
"I remember you well, at the Chelsea hotel"
He says his say without smiling
Lady Midnight Man and the Hippie
Oh no, I've forgotten
You do the same, you fool
"Oh, I remember you well, at the Chelsea hotel"

[CHORUS:]
*Remember his words, no turning back
Janis and the poet from Montreal
Remember his words, no turning back
Janis and the poet from Montreal
I remember you well, at the Chelsea Hotel...*

He's here in front of me now
Singing where once was fighting
Dublin celebrates with him
The Jew who received the welcome
"I remember you well, at the Chelsea hotel"

[CHORUS:]
*Remember his words, no turning back
Janis and the poet from Montreal
Remember his words, no turning back
Janis and the poet from Montreal
I remember you well, at the Chelsea Hotel...*

*Remember his words, no turning back
Janis and the poet from Montreal
Remember his words, no turning back
Janis and the poet from Montreal
I remember you well, at the Chelsea Hotel...*
Yes I remember you well, at the Chelsea Hotel
Oh, at the Chelsea Hotel
Oh, at the Chelsea Hotel

7. Rebel Wicend - Weekend Rebel

Singer: Bryn Fon

Mae'n cyrraedd ei swyddfa yn gynnar bob bore Yn cario ei frifffces ecsetiwtif bach.
"Bore da, Mistar Eliot" a "Diolch yn fawr Rachel,
A chofiwch, dim siwgwr, trio cadw yn iach."
Ac mae'n eistedd fel sowldiwr o flaen ei brosesydd
A phob pin a phapur a ffeil yn eu lle, Ac am bump mae o'n ol tu ol i lyw'r BMW
Yn gyrru am adre ar gyrion y dre.

Bob nos wrth droi'r goriad mae'n gweiddi,
"dwi adre.
Sut ddiwrnod ges ti a be sy 'na i dde?"
Ac ar garreg yr aelwyd
mae'i slipars yn c'nesu
Ac arogl cartref yn llenwi y lle.
Ond ar nos Wener daw adre a hongian ei siwt
A newid i'r hen denims cul,
Hongian modrwyau trwy'r tyllau'n ei glustiau
A chuddio y rasal tan yn hwyr ar nos Sul.

[Cytgan:]
*A dyna chi fo, yn rebal wicend go iawn, Hefo'i stic-on tatw a'i dun baco herbal yn llawn.
Yn rebal wicend o'i gorun i'w draed
Ac ysbryd gwrthryfel yn berwi 'mhob diferyn o'i waed.*

Ac ar bnawn Sadwrn mewn denims a lledar, Crys T heb lewys a'i wallt o yn saim,
Mae'n mynd draw i'r dafarn i siarad a'r rocars,
I yfed Jack Daniels yn lle lagyr a laim.
Ac ar ol yfed digon mae'r gitar yn dod allan
Ac mae o'n canu y blws a thrio swnio yn ddu.
Son am drallodion genod ysgol yn disgwyl.
Mae o'n teimlo fel deryn ac ymddwyn fel ci.

[Cytgan]

Amser cinio dydd Sul mae o'n ol yn y dafarn
Yn yfed ei hochor o ddeuddeg tan dri,
Yn siarad yn ddwfn am genod a wisgi
A phob ystum o'i eiddo yn dweud 'ylwch fi'.
Ond gyda'r nos, cyn gwyllo Hel Straeon,
Mae o ar goll ym mybls y bath, digon siwr.
Mae'r metamorphosis drosodd am wythnos fach arall
Pan mae'r rebel yn mynd lawr y plyg gyda'r dwr.

[Cytgan]

Ac ar fore dydd Llun mae o'n ol yn y swyddfa A'r cris yn ei drowses yn finiog fel bled.
Mae'r rebel wicend yn edrych o'i gwmpas
Ac yn sylweddoli ei fod o ym medd.

He arrives in his office early each morning
And carries his little executive briefcase.
"Good morning, Mister Eliot" and "Thank you very much Rachel,
And remember, no sugar, trying to stay healthy."
He sits like a soldier in front of his processor
With each pin and paper and file in their place,
And at five he's back behind the BMW's steering wheel
Driving back home on the outskirts of town.

Each night as he turns the key he yells,
"I'm home.
How was your day and what is there for tea?"
And on the stone of the fireplace his slippers are warming
And the smell of home filling the place.
But on Friday night he comes home and hangs his suit
And changes to the old narrow denims,
He hangs rings through the holes in his ears
And hides the razor until late on Sunday night.

[Chorus:]
*And there he is, a real weekend rebel,
With his stick-on tattoo and his herbal tobacco tin filled.
A weekend rebel from his crown to toe
And the spirit of rebellion boiling in each drop of his blood.*

And on a Saturday afternoon in denims and leather,
A sleeveless T-Shirt and his hair full of grease,
He goes down to the tavern to talk with the rockers,
To drink Jack Daniels instead of lime and lager.
And after drinking enough the guitar comes out
And he sings the blues and tries to sound black.
Discusses the woes of pregnant school girls.
He feels like a bird and acts like a dog.

[Chorus]

At lunch time on Sunday he's back in the tavern
And drinks from twelve until three,
He talks deeply about girls and whiskey
And each motion of his says 'look at me'.
But by night time, before watching 'Hel Straeon', He's lost in the bubbles of the bath, most likely.
The metamorphosis is over for another small week
When the rebel goes down the plug with the water.

[Chorus]

And on Monday morning he's back in the office,
And the crease in his trouser is as sharp as a blade.
The Weekend Rebel looks around him
And realizes that he's in a grave.
